ORDER:

In G.O.No.3825, Home, dated 30th August, 1950 the Government sanctioned the conversion of the post of Urdu Munshi in M.S.P. into that of a Hindi Teacher. The I.G. of Police has stated that it has been ascertained from the Army Head Quarters that the M.S.P. personnel attending courses of instructions in the Army Schools should know Hindustani in the Roman script, that though a working knowledge of Hindustani in Roman script can be acquired while learning Hindi for the time being, the instructors in the Army Schools in North India are likely to use more of Urdu words than Hindi words and that a working knowledge in Urdu for the Hindi Teacher in the M.S.P. should be an additional qualification to impart a working knowledge in Hindustani. The I.G. has accordingly proposed that the Hindi Teacher must have acquired a working knowledge of Urdu and passed the 'Rashtrabasha' or Higher examination ofthe Hindustani Prachar Sabha or equivalent titles. The Government accept the I.G.'s proposals.
